1. Claims 18-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Endo (5590826), or in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable Endo. In Figs. 13a-c, Endo teaches a shoulder-protecting device having a plurality of inflexible curved members 1P hingedly connected together (flexible portions 18 are the hinges as claimed), and having a channel (see Fig. 13c). Endo also teaches the use of a shoulder-protecting device with rucksack (backpack) in col. 4, ln. 19).

To the degree it is argued that the emb. in Figs. 13a-c does not teach for using with a backpack. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use the device in a backpack, one on each side of the shoulder strap, to provide protection for both shoulders.

Regarding claim 19, note the soft yielding material 2, col. 5, ln. 2.

2. Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant asserts that there is no teaching of inflexible curved members. The examiner noted that in Fig. 13a-13b, Endo teaches that portions 1 are rigid, thus portions 1P are inflexible as claimed, and the hinges are portions 18 since they are flexible.

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
